Sobre nosotros

Cassaplast ®proviene de las palabras cassava, que significa mandioca y Plast de Plástico: Cassaplast significa plástico hecho de almidón de mandioca o yuca.

Cassaplast como una unidad de negocio de Ruser Indonesia, una empresa dedicada a la industria del plástico que está domiciliada en Bandung, Java Occidental, Indonesia, desde 2012 y se compromete a desarrollar siempre el resultado de su producto para tener un impacto en la protección del medio ambiente en el futuro.

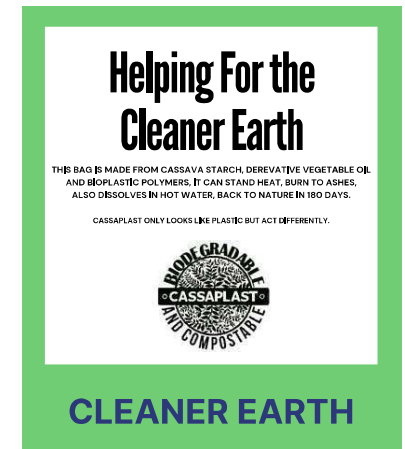

Cassaplast continuará desarrollándose en un producto que en última instancia puede reemplazar los envases de plástico hacia un futuro más ecológico.

- Bolsa Cassaplast hecha de almidón de yuca, derivado del aceite vegetal y polímero bioplástico
 - Puede soportar el calor y quemarse hasta las cenizas
 - Disolver en agua caliente
 - Volver a la naturaleza en 180 días
 - Puede ser consumido por microorganismos que viven en nuestros suelos
